

Bottom Trumps.

Put scores against your least favourite areas to work in or where you want to develop some skills. In each circle, give the skill or attribute a name, and then a score out of 5 (with 5 being great).

The form consists of six large, empty circles arranged in a staggered pattern. The circles are intended for the user to write a skill or attribute name and a score out of 5.